STORY LINES

- This is the first meeting between Florida Tech and Presbyterian.
- The Panthers are 1-1 all-time playing in the state of South Carolina. FIT lost to Newberry 19-23 in 2013 and evened the loss 42-28 in this season's opener in Newberry, S.C.
- Florida Tech is 2-2 all-time against opponents from Division I FCS. FIT defeated Stetson in 2013 and 2014 and lost to Bethune Cookman in 2014 and Southeastern Louisiana in 2015.
- Florida Tech ranks eighth in Division II in rushing offense at 275.7 per game and sixth in total offense at 550.7. Conversely, Presbyterian is 86th in FCS in rushing defense at 205.0 per game and 81st in total defense at 420.3.
- The Panthers have one of the stingiest run defenses in the country, allowing just 57.0 yards per game to come in at fifth in D2, while Presbyterian ranks 91st in FCS in rushing offense at 115.7 per game.
- Florida Tech is allowing just 9.3 points per game, good for third in Division II, while PC's 11.3 points per game on offense ranks 112th in FCS.

PANTHERS IN THE POLLS

Florida Tech continues to be ranked in both the AFCA Coaches' Poll and the D2Football.com Poll. The Panthers are tied for 19th in the AFCA Poll with North Alabama, while coming in at No. 24 in the D2Football.com Poll.

Fellow GSC schools West Georgia and North Alabama also appear in both polls, while Valdosta State is ranked in the D2football.com poll.

HERO SPORTS RANKINGS

The Panthers continue their meteoric rise up the Hero Sports D2 Football Rankings, coming in at No. 4. FIT is joined in the top-10 by fellow GSC members North Alabama (1), West Georgia (3) and Valdosta State (16).

DEFENSE IN PEAK FORM

Florida Tech couldn't ask for much more from its defense recently. After holding an opponent scoreless in a game just once in its first three years, FIT has posted back-to-back shutouts the last two weeks. The Panther defense has not allowed a single point in its last nine quarters and just seven points in the last 10 quarters.

HIGH POWERED OFFENSE

After posting 547, 524 and 581 yards of total offense in the first three games, Florida Tech is one of just five teams in Division II to amass over 500 yards of total offense in every game this season. The Panthers are joined by Ashland, Colorado Mines, Seton Hill and Grand Valley State.

AIRING IT OUT

While Florida Tech hasn't exactly lit the world on fire with its passing game to this point in 2016, when signal caller Mark Cato does let it go he goes big. The redshirt-junior ranks eighth in the nation in passing yards per completion at an 16.56 clip, most in the GSC.

Cato's favorite target, Kenny Johnston, is 14th in D2 in yards per reception at 23.6, leading the conference.

BUCKLING DOWN

Florida Tech leads NCAA Division II in red zone defense, allowing a score just 40 percent of the time when its opponent gets inside the 20-yard line. Panther opponents have scored just twice in five appearances in the red zone. FIT is tied for the lead with Aldersson Broaddus.

THE CAPTAINS

Florida Tech will have three captains in 2016. Linebacker Chris Stapleton and defensive lineman Skylar Sheffield return to the role after serving as captains in 2015. Receiver Wayne Saunders II is the newcomer to the list, being voted as captain by his teammates. Additionally, the Panthers will name a fourth captain the night before each game.

PANTHERS PICKED THIRD IN GSC

Entering its fourth season, the Florida Tech football team has been picked to finish third in the Gulf South Conference by the GSC member coaches.

The Panthers garnered 48 points in the 2016 GSC Football Preseason Coaches Poll, including a pair of first place votes. Defending national semifinalist West Georgia tops the poll after receiving the other four first place votes.

Florida Tech was picked sixth in the Gulf South Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll prior to each of the program's first two seasons before moving up to fifth in 2015.

Preseason Poll (First-Place Votes/Total Votes)

PRESEASON ALL-GSC TEAM

Florida Tech landed eight players on the 2016 Preseason All-Gulf South Conference Team, the most of any conference school.

For the second-straight year redshirt-senior running back Trevor Sand landed on the list. Despite missing three games due to injury, the Seminole, Florida native led the Panthers in rushing with 737 yards, finding the end zone three times.

Fresh off of a breakout season in 2014, tight end Kenny Johnston receives preseason all-conference designation. Johnston led the GSC in receiving touchdowns with 10, racking up a team-high 787 yards.

Many times the players opening up holes and providing protection to allow for big plays go unnoticed. That isn't the case for Florida Tech, as three members of the Panthers' offensive line were honored in Kevin Delgado, Blake Stone and Matt Nelson.

On the defensive side, defensive back Manny Abad repeats as all-conference. Abad tied for second in the GSC in pass breakups with 10 and tied for third in passes defended with 11.

Linebacker Chris Stapleton makes an appearance on the preseason all-conference list. The Navarre, Florida native ranked third in the GSC in tackles with 89.

Safety Trai Cadore wraps up the FIT honorees. The Cocoa High School product was one of two Panthers with multiple interceptions in 2015.

Johnston, Nelson and Stapleton are among a group of 13 unanimous selections

Additionally, the GSC listed the conference's top newcomers from each team for the upcoming season. For FIT, sophomore linebacker Donald Styles III, junior receiver Romell Guerrier and junior defensive back Joe Jackson made the cut.

* GSC-TV Game of the Week

JOHNSTON NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Unlike a year ago, FIT tight end Kenny Johnston will not come into the season under the radar. After proving himself as one of the top pass catchers at his position in the nation, the redshirt-senior was named to the FootballGamePlan.com Preseason All-American Team.

Johnston was one of three tight ends honored, joined by Ashland's Adam Shaeen and Southern Arkansas's Tanner Hudson.

GSC GAME OF THE WEEK RENEWED

The Gulf South Conference has officially announced the schedule for the 12th edition of its Florida's Space Coast GSC Football Game of the Week featured live on ESPN3.

ESPN3 serves as the exclusive carrier of the league's package for the third consecutive season. This year's 10-game slate includes nine Saturday games and one Thursday night contest and kicks off on September 17 when Shorter University hosts Florida Tech in Rome, Ga.

Play-by-play commentator Don Russell and color commentator Rick Rhodes will continue to lead the coverage from the booth and Gulf Coast Mobile, L.L.C. will produce the package for the fifth year in a row.

Fans can access each contest on the GSC's official ESPN3 page at gscsports.org/ESPN3 or visiting WatchESPN.com.

FIT will be featured three times this season, tied with West Alabama for the most in the conference. The Panthers' contests with Shorter (Sept. 17), Valdosta State (Oct. 29) and Delta State (Nov. 12) will be featured.

PANTHERS ON THE NATIONAL STAGE

Florida Tech will play in front of a national audience three times in 2016. Fans will be able to watch the Panthers three times on WatchESPN and the ESPN App as part of the Florida's Space Coast GSC Game of the Week schedule. Additionally, the Panthers' matchup with new in-state rival West Florida (Oct. 1) will be part of the NCAA Division 2 Football Showcase and will be aired on the American Sports Network.

COASTAL CLASSIC

There's a new rivalry forming in the GSC, with West Florida becoming the second Division II football team in the Sunshine State. When the Panthers and Argonauts meet in October, the game will be dubbed the Coastal Classic, with both sides vying for an anchor themed trophy.

TEAM ADIDAS

The Panthers will wear three different sets of uniforms – crimson, gray and white – in 2016. All are part of the Adidas Shockweb collection.

With two helmets at their disposal - crimson and gray - FIT has its choice of 18 different uniform combinations.

TOP NOTCH COMPETITION

The Gulf South Conference has long been respected as one of the deepest and strongest conferences in all of NCAA Division II football. The conference has received some confirmation of this belief as Hero Sports lists the GSC number one in their conference power rankings.

The South Atlantic Conference and Lone Star Conference round out the top-3.

STAFF CHANGES

Florida Tech saw some changes to its staff in the lead up to the 2016 season.

Coming off of his first year in the program, Mark Smith will assume the duties of defensive coordinator, while remaining the Panthers' defensive line coach.

Graduate assistant Dan Owen has been given the duties of video coordinator in addition to his role as secondary coach.

Joe Stockton joins the FIT staff as wide receivers coach after spending the past three seasons at Limestone.

David Stuckman is the Panthers' new safeties coach, coming to FIT after a one-year stint at Louisiana Tech.

Jean Cherizol wraps up the overhaul, taking over as XXX

WFIT, THE HOME OF PANTHER FOOTBALL

For a third consecutive season, Florida Tech football games this fall can be heard on the Official Radio Partner of the Panthers, WFIT 89.5 FM.

WFIT will carry all 11 of the Panthers' games on the radio dial. Additionally all games can be heard at WFIT.org and through the free TuneIn Radio app.

Jerry Durney and Paul Van Scott return to provide play-by-play and color commentary for the Panthers.

ENGLEHART TO APPEAR WEEKLY ON MARK MOSES SHOW

Each Thursday, Florida Tech head football coach Steve Englehart appears weekly on The Mark Moses Show on Sports Radio 1560 The Fan and sportsradio1560.com for The Panther Report, presented by Nissan of Melbourne.

Englehart and Moses go over the latest FIT news, recap games, preview the Panthers' upcoming opponent and interact with Panther fans.

COFFEE WITH COACH ENGLEHART

Every Thursday, head coach Steve Englehart will be interviewed following practice by Space Coast Daily's Alan Zlotorzynski. The interview, title "Coffee with Coach Englehart" will be available via Facebook Live on Space Coast Daily's Facebook account.

HASHTAGS

Throughout the 2016 season, FIT fans are encouraged to use the hashtags #PTR and #ONE when mentioning Panther Football on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Fans can follow Panther Football on Twitter (@FLTechFootball), Instagram (@FloridaTechFootball) and on Facebook at Florida Tech Football.

STEVE ENGLEHART

Head football coach Steve Englehart enters his fourth season at the helm of the Panther football team. During his first three seasons, Englehart has steered FIT to an 18-16 overall record, including a 9-11 record in Gulf South Conference action.

The program's third season was unquestionably its most successful, coming within one game of a conference championships and a postseason bid with a 7-4 record. The Panthers registered a pair of monumental wins during the campaign, becoming the first team to defeat then No. 5 Delta State on its home turf in over three years and knocking off the nation's No. 1 ranked team in West Georgia on Senior Day at Florida Tech Panther Stadium.

In 2014, Englehart's Panthers surprised and shook up the college football world. FIT notched its first-ever win over a ranked opponent with a thrilling 37-31 victory over No. 12 Tarleton State at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, the home venue of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys. The following week the Panthers returned to the Sunshine State and narrowly dropped a game at Division I opponent Bethune Cookman after failing to convert a two-point attempt at the end of the game. The program tallied another first later in the year, garnering its first GSC road win with a dramatic 33-32 win at West Alabama. FIT finished the year with a 6-5 overall record and a 3-4 mark in the GSC.

Englehart led Florida Tech Football to a 5-7 record in the program's inaugural season in fall 2013. The Panthers' victories included their inaugural game against Stetson, a Gulf South Conference win versus Shorter, a Homecoming triumph over Warner, their last regular season game against Webber International and a victory in the first-ever Eastern College Athletic Conference Division II Futures Bowl over Alderson Broaddus.

Since he arrived at Florida Tech in 2011, he has built the program from the ground up. With the help of his staff, he has recruited over 110 new student-athletes, fundraised for the new Varsity Training Center, been heavily involved with the Brevard County community and traveled throughout the state of Florida to promote Florida Tech Football.

Prior to settling in Melbourne, Englehart was the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Indiana State University, in 2010. His unit set program records, scoring 351 points and 48 touchdowns, and averaged the 17th-most yards in the Football Championship Subdivision at 411.8 yards per game. Running back Darrius Gates excelled under Englehart as he averaged 10.6 points per game, which led the Missouri Valley Conference and was second at the FCS level.

Englehart also coached for four years at NCAA Division III Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology. At the time of his hiring, Englehart was the second youngest head coach in all of NCAA football at 28 years old. He guided the Fightin' Engineers to a 26-14 record. His .650 winning percentage is still the best in program history. During his last three years at Rose-Hulman, his players combined for 30 All-Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference awards. Englehart also coached quarterback Derek Eitel who graduated with every major career passing record, and was named HCAC Player of the Year in 2009.

Englehart played quarterback at Indiana State from 1996-99 where he ran the triple option. He earned letters in 97, 98, and 99. He was named to the Gateway Football Conference's All-Academic Team in 1998 and 1999, was named a GTE Scholar Athlete three times, and earned Sycamore Honor Athlete recognition for four seasons.

Englehart and his wife, Carrie, reside in Melbourne and have three children, Caden, Ty, and Lila.
